DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1, 4-9, 11-12, 14-30 and 49-53 drawn to a method of promoting smoking cessation comprising administering an effective amount of a pure S,S-enantiomer of reboxetine in combination with an agent selected from the group of nicotine, an antidepressant, an anxiolytic, a nicotine receptor antagonist, or an opioid antagonist, classified in class 514, subclasses 230.5, 279, and 813.
- II. Claims 31 and 33-48, drawn to a pharmaceutical composition comprising a pure S,S-enantiomer of reboxetine and an agent selected from the group of nicotine, an antidepressant, an anxiolytic, a nicotine receptor antagonist, or an opioid antagonist, classified in class 514, subclass 230.5, 279, and 813.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case, the method of promoting smoking cessation in a human can be accomplished with another materially different product, such as nicotine replacement therapies (i.e., nicotine patch, nicotine gum). Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. In searching Group I, the Examiner would be focusing on the patentability of the composition itself and not the method of using the composition, while searching for Group II would focus on the patentability of the method of using the composition and not the composition itself. Therefore, to search Groups I and II would present a search burden on the Examiner.

Notice of Possible Rejoinder

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

In the event that Applicant elects either of Groups I or II for further prosecution on the merits, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of antidepressant, anxiolytic, nicotine receptor antagonist, and opioid antagonist for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held allowable. Currently claims 1,17-31, 34-50 are generic.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Conclusion to Restriction Requirement

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of an invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Due to the complex nature of the instant restriction requirement, a written restriction requirement was necessitated. See MPEP § 812.01.
